Valentine Korah, Denis O'Sullivan : Distribution Agreements under the EC Competition Rules before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Distribution Agreements under the EC Competition Rules:

Professor Korah's short monographs on specific topics within EC competition law are well known and widely used.

This work follows the pattern of her previous books on group exemptions for technology transfer and parallel imports. It examines the regulation on vertical agreements, starting with a chapter on the economic background, before developing, in a series of chapters, a careful analysis of vertical agreements and all of the relevant case law. A further chapter deals with agreements which do not come within the regulation, again paying careful attention to the case law.

.a good basis to the EC rules for distribution agreements Cani Fernandez World Competition Law and Economics December 2002 Korah's and Sullivan's book is the most detailed and knowledgeable work on the Vertical Regulation in English language to date. It will be an indispensable, and also highly understandable tool for anyone seeking to grasp both the new law's essence and its details. Boris M. Kasten, University of Erlangen, Germany European Competition Law January 2003 About the Author Valentine Korah is Professor Emeritus of Competition Law at University College, London, and a Barrister.
