York University : Documenting the Undocumented: Redefining Refugee Status: Center for Refugee Studies 2009 Annual Conference Proceedings before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Documenting the Undocumented: Redefining Refugee Status: Center for Refugee Studies 2009 Annual Conference Proceedings:

This Proceeding is a direct product of the Center for Refugee Studies Annual Conference-- Documenting the Undocumented: Redefining Refugee Status, which took place on April 16-17, 2009 at York University, Toronto, Canada. It is a compilation of 11 scholastic essays ranging from a wide variety of topics related to "undocumented people" - domestic workers, internally displaced people, non-status students, environmental displacement, resettlement, refugees, and more. These thought provoking, yet unconventional pieces will attract academics, non-academics, policy makers, practitioners, lawyers, policy makers and others.
