Real estate is a good career but it requires passing the state exam and for anyone who is interested in clearing the Florida State exam this book is a good go to guide. It covers succinctly the main questions which will appear on the exam and the 7 day lay out is a good tactical approach to taking the exam. The book could be a bit longer, but then again I think the aim of the book is to give a quick run through the main points, so that the candidate will know how to answer the questions clearly rather than getting lost in the detail!
