From Routledge : Globalization and International Investment (The International Library of Essays on Globalization and Law) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Globalization and International Investment (The International Library of Essays on Globalization and Law):

This volume brings together a broad range of articles on international law and foreign investment which together provide a contemporary overview of the diverse range of issues and perspectives which continue to exercise policy-makers and scholars alike. Central to this collection is the tension between market-oriented reforms on the one hand, raising issues of market access and protection of investors, and corporate social responsibility discourses on the other, raising concerns about environmental protection and respect for human and labour rights. Regional perspectives on these issues reveal differing priorities and approaches.

About the Author Fiona Beveridge is Senior Lecturer in Law at the School of Law, University of Liverpool, UK.
