Because I know people who doesn't speak English, I ordered two (2) of the Spanish versions. Unfortunately, I never received my book. Seller never sent me a tracking number. After more than 20 days waiting for the book, I contacted the seller and got a full refund. I'm giving this book only 1 star, because I didn't get the chance to actually review the Spanish contents and compared them to the English version for accuracy.

The Spanish translation of U.S. Immigration Step by Step reflects the vast changes that have been made within the immigration system since the inception of the Department of Homeland Security. This new edition addresses not only the changes within the organizational structure, but also system changes that affect category preference and visa time limits.
