From Foreign Languages Press : Insurance Law of the People's Republic of China before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Insurance Law of the People's Republic of China:

This book contains an English translation of China's documentation of insurance laws. The document was adopted and issued by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress and made effective as of October 1, 1995. The document covers several topics regarding insurance, including the companies, contracts, agents and brokers and legal liabilities.
